This year the University of Barcelona will offer twenty-five international courses in specialized fields related to business and economics, health, natural sciences, social sciences and humanities. The courses, will allow participants to combine rigorous training and scientific excellence with a unique international experience.

These multidisciplinary courses, taught mainly in English, are offered over one to four weeks, and are open to all international citizens, with a focus on students, and professionals who wish to gain further knowledge, and also will be carried out on the premises of the iconic Historic Building of the University of Barcelona, in the heart of the city, or other campus locations.
